

Sangani joins Kudos network

Staff Report

DUBAI — Sangani and Company, a Dubai-based firm, announced that it had joined Kudos International Network as a full member auditing/accounting firm.

Kudos International Network is a member of Forum of Firms, an association of international networks of accounting firms performing audits of financial statements used across borders. The forum's objective is to promote consistent and high-quality standards of financial reporting and auditing practices worldwide, Kiran Sangani said.

Sangani and Company is established in 1984 in the UAE and is based in Dubai with branches in Sharjah and Sharjah Airport International Free Zone. The firm provides a wide range of services including audit, accounts outsourcing, company incorporation in mainland, freezone and offshore zones, project report preparation, investigations, corporate liquidation, and due diligence. The firm is already a member firm of Premier International Associates, which is an international network of independent accounting and consulting firms.
